TRAVELS OF A MUSIC MASTER.

Prof. Lillebridge Talks Entertainingly of His Summer Trip Abroad.

Professor and Mrs. Lillebridge of the Texas Woman's College returned to Bryan Wednesday, after spending their vacation in Germany and Scandinavia. They report having a most enjoyable time, and they are certainly looking well and seem to be thoroughly rested and ready to begin work vigorously next week when school opens.

They visited many points of interest and were much impressed with Vienna and Nuremberg. In the latter city, where they have relatives, they saw the famous castle and visited the royal apartments and towers. In the towers are the torture chambers and dungeons. These contain the greatest variety of instruments of torture, such as racks, spiked cradles and barrels, iron chairs with spikes and an oven at the bottom to roast the victim; the famous "iron virgin," a figure in the form of a nun; this horrible instrument of torture opens by means of doors, on the inside of which are long, sharp spikes, and which, when the prisoner is standing within, are gradually closed, the spikes penetrating the eyes, heart and other parts of the body; below is a trap door, underneath which was a moving knife, which gradually cut the body of the victim to pieces, and these fell into the river beneath and were carried away. Torture was abolished in Bavaria in 1806. The famous "deep well" is here. Prisoners worked thirty years digging 315 feet into the solid rock. The well is connected through underground passages with different parts of the city below.

In Vienna the beautiful Central Cemetery was visited. Here, in a grand arcade, are interred the bodies of Beethoven, Schubert, Mozart, Brahms, Strauss, Millocker, and other great Masters. It was most affecting to stand here and reflect that one was in the presence of all that was mortal of the mighty Beethoven and of the sweet Schubert. No inscription save the name "Beethoven" in large black letters was on this composer's monument, but no more was necessary. Tears unbidden moistened the eyes, and with bowed head one realized that here was the spirit of the great master, which rode "The tides of music's golden sea, Setting towards Eternity."

The soul grows rich through an experience like this. Some flowers and cypress were plucked as mementos.

We are also glad to report that both Mr. and Mrs. Lillebridge were the recipients of many compliments from musical people of high standing. Madame Henneberg, a famous opera singer, now located in Munich, was charmed with the singing of Mrs. Lillebridge. She found her voice very remarkable, and was most enthusiastic in compliments both of her voice and method of singing. Mr. Lillebridge gained the friendship and good offices of one of the most noted as well as the dreaded critics of Germany, Dr. Rudolf Louis, over which he feels much elated. His playing was so much admired by one musician as to cause the remark that they did not have so good a player in Munich. We give translation of part of a letter written to Mr. Lillebridge:

"Please accept thanks for delightful hours you gave us yesterday by playing your compositions, which gave us extraordinary pleasure. The tenderness and poetical moods to which the prelude gives expression, as also the beautiful song, 'Thou art Like Unto a Flower,' which Mrs. Lillebridge sang so beautifully, must charm every music lover. The Capriccio, with its original and piquant turns, gave it the stamp of genius. 'Glück auf damit.' We hope a favorable fortune will soon bring you and your wife back to Germany.—O. Bernhuber."

The trip over was most delightful, and the return trip was very pleasant, except for some disagreeable rains.

MISS McLELLAND'S MUSIC CLASS

Miss Sue McLelland announces the reopening of her music class on Monday, Sept. 9, and invites the patronage of former pupils and new ones for instruction on the piano and stringed instruments. She desires to express her thanks for patronage heretofore received.

SOCIAL and Club Matters

Quite an enjoyable evening was spent on Thursday. Miss Lessie Mawhinney was surprised by a crowd of her friends who came around to spend several hours of pleasure with her. Many different kinds of games were played. Miss Lessie surprised her guests as much as they did her, when she served them with sherbet and wafers, which had been planned after the arrival of the guests. Those in the party were Misses Madeline Hanway, Laura James, Ira Maud Camp, Margaret Zuber, Helen DeMaret, Louise Batte, Lillian Batte, Will Howell John Newton, Derden Chance, Charlie Hudson, Edgar Henry.

The J. U. G. Club Girls were hostesses to a large number of their boy and girl friends Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff A. Adams, their youngest daughter, Miss Lila, being a member of this jolly club. The smooth green lawn had been made festive for the occasion. Handsome art squares, rugs and sofa pillows were used and pretty Japanese lanterns were hung over the lawn. In one corner of the yard was a pretty Japanese bower where delicious punch was served by Misses Cora Garth, Malcolm McInnis and Alberta Adams, who also helped in entertaining the guests. An interesting fish contest was enjoyed. After the cards were examined it was found that Miss Louise Batte was given a hat pin and Derden Chance a stick pin for their success in answering the questions. Each of these pretty club girls have had such unique and enjoyable individual parties this summer, so of course when they all came together to plan their final party before the commencing of school, the guests naturally expected a good time in which none were disappointed. Cream and cake were served. Major and Mrs. Adams assisted in entertaining.

A prominent event on the social calendar this week was the informal "at home" with which Miss Bessie and Blanche Buchanan entertained a number of friends on Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Buchanan to meet their guests, Misses Prater, of Louisiana. The home was beautifully decorated throughout. Flowers and foliage were employed to good effect, and with the cordial hospitality and welcome extended by Mrs. Buchanan and daughters, the home was doubly attractive. Names of different books were called out, each guest had the job of guessing the authors. Miss Vivian James was given a prettily bound book for guessing the most correct authors. Miss Gertrude Eaves was consoled with a pot of pretty ferns. Delicious grape juice was served on the arrival of the guests. Misses Prater being the guests of honor, were given hand bags as souvenirs of the occasion. Those present were: Misses Mary Wilcox, Sadie Mawhinney, Mabel Zimmerman, Mary Roman, Frances Chance, Mary Harris, Hattie Lou Hudson, Vivian James, Ruby James, Mary Knowles Frances Fountain, Gertrude Eaves, Gussie Buchanan, Alma Robinson, Waldine Sanders, Maud Lee McCann, Malcolm McInnis, Alberta Adams, Nannie Lou Betts, Lola Betts, Florence Locke, Villa McCullough, Allie Conway, Susie Lomax, Clara Mawhinney.

Thursday afternoon in honor of the Bachelorettes Club, Miss Mary Wilcox was the hostess for a most perfectly appointed party. Delicious ice cold grape juice was served from a crystal bowl to the charming guests as they arrived. The main decorations were pretty green ferns and palms with vases of roses placed about the rooms. After an hour of most pleasant conversation the hostess announced she had planned a contest. A pretty fan was won by Miss Cora Garth. The booty, a sack of peanuts, went to Miss Alma Robinson. Miss Mary was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Kate Wilcox, in the serving of a delicious course of cream and cake. At the afternoon's close many expressions of pleasure were heard regarding the delightful affair.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Law entertained the members of the Baptist Sunday school choir at a pleasant social meeting Friday evening, at the conclusion of which the host and hostess chaperoned the party to the store of the Smith Drug Co., where ices were served.

About twenty-five boys and girls made merry Thursday afternoon on the beautiful lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gibbs, the occasion being a social entertainment of the Juvenile Missionary society of the Methodist church. The hostess made everything so pleasant for the little folks that they can wish for no greater fortune than to be invited to the Gibbs home again. A nice contribution was made to the society fund.

CLASH AT WEST POINT.

Commandant and Some Cadets Are at Outs.

New York, Sept. 7.—The "silent treatment" of a "plebe" at West Point, it is stated in dispatches received here, has resulted in a clash between the plebe class and the commandant at the military academy, Colonel Robert L. Howze, which threatens to deplete the supply of United States army officers four years hence, for Colonel Howze issued an order two days ago to the effect that unless the cadet was relieved entirely of the "treatment" he would dishonorably discharge the entire class.

A cadet, the son of a wealthy Chicago man, is the man around whom the trouble centers. He is a plebe, and it is stated, received the "silent treatment" not only from his own class, but from the cadets in other classes, because of a complaint he is alleged to have made when he was mildly hazed by a fellow classmate.

The treatment of the cadet reached the commandant by some means, causing him to threaten the dismissal of the class unless it was stopped.

The cadets, it is understood, have determined to remain firm in their attitude, so that interesting developments are likely.

OVERRATED AUTHORITY.

This Is What Officials of the War Department Say.

Washington, Sept. 7.—If Colonel Howze, commandant of cadets at West Point, threatened to dismiss the whole class of cadets because the members had sent one of their number to "conviction" he overrated his authority, according to officials of the war department, for the power of dismissal in such cases is not confined to any official of lower rank than the president himself. The extent of the commandant's powers in such cases would be temporarily to suspend the offending cadets and to recommend dismissal, first to the superintendent of the academy and then in turn to the secretary of war and the president.

TRAGEDY IN STATION.

Brakeman Kills Clerk and His Own Career Ends.

Little Rock, Sept. 7.—N. C. Suggs, a brakeman in the employ of the Iron Mountain railroad, walked into the office in the union station here of the trainmaster, pulled a revolver after a few minutes' conversation and killed J. G. Cromwell, a clerk. Holding the smoking pistol in his hand, Suggs said: "I've got two shots left; one for the police and one for myself."

He then walked about 100 yards down the track and shot himself through the head. It is said that Cromwell and Suggs had some previous trouble over business matters—a dispute as to his time on a payroll.

BY CARNES & WALLACE

BRYAN, TEXAS, SEPT 8, 1907

Austin is the base ball center as well as the political capital of Texas.

Many close observers of the political sky are of the opinion that Roosevelt's star has passed the meridian and is beginning to descend toward the western horizon.

Since the victory of the ants in Milan county the representative anti-prohibitionists of Rockdale have held a meeting and pledged themselves, individually and collectively, to see that the Baskin-McGregor law shall be strictly enforced.

The administration candidate for presidency has never been beaten in time of war. There be some who suspect that Roosevelt is planning to have the next presidential election occur amid "the pomp and circumstance of glorious war."

There are two future events as certain as anything can be that is not already an accomplished fact—the nomination of Bryan for president by the national Democratic convention next year, and the adoption of the two cents railroad passenger fare rate.

The Centerville Democrat says regretfully: "If we could have court all the time our town would not be near so dull and sleepy." Get a hump on yourself and do something to make more business for the court, kill some body, steal a horse or something.

It now transpires that the Georgia legislature nailed down the lid so tight that it is unlawful to dispense wine at a communion service. The governor says that this unintentional provision will not be enforced, but in some parts of the state where prohibition is unpopular leading attorneys declared that the law shall be obeyed to the letter or they will know the reason why.

Lady's Close Call.

Greenville, Tex., Sept. 7.—While Mrs. A. J. Lane was standing by a cistern at her home here the earth caved in and she was precipitated into water about nine feet deep. Hearing her screams, a neighbor ran to Mrs. Lane's assistance and managed to keep the victim's head above water until further help came and she was rescued.

Sherman Young Lady Robbed.

St. Louis, Sept. 7.—Miss Clara Zauk of Sherman, Tex., reported to the police that several hundred dollars' worth of jewelry was removed from her trunk while it was being taken to the Forest Park university from a downtown hotel where she spent Monday night. The trunk was evidently opened with a skeleton key.

The Eagle publishes elsewhere in this issue an interview with Prof. Frederic Lillebridge, who gives a highly interesting account of some of those things out of the ordinary which he saw while abroad. Although Mr. Lillebridge has had many flattering offers, he desires to remain in Bryan owing to the uniformly courteous reception which has been accorded him and his wife by the people of Bryan, and the generous patronage extended, all of which is greatly appreciated. The Eagle is pleased to say that teachers who command instant recognition in the great musical centers of Europe should be unhesitatingly accepted by the public, and the brilliant results that have attended their work here as teachers, performers and directors, and at Ft. Worth, demonstrates that they are unsurpassed in their line in the state.

INFANT MUCH ALIVE.

Kicks Before Undertaker and Coroner and Yells.

Racine, Wis., Sept. 7.—Called to hold an inquest over the body of a supposed dead baby, the coroner, and undertaker saw the child open her eyes, and heard her lustily scream for her mother, prostrated with grief in an adjoining room.

When the coroner reached the home of Michael Popowski, after having been informed of the sudden death of a girl seven months' old, he was informed by the parents that the child had died suddenly an hour before.
There being no doubt apparently of the babe's death, the undertaker began his work, when the little girl twitched, kicked her legs towards the ceiling and the mouth and eyes opened, the former giving vent to a battery of shrieks while the latter gave out a flood of big tears.

It was some time before the mother could be convinced that her child was living.

HACKED MOST HORRIBLY

Wealthy Woman Found Dead at Her Home.

HUSBAND IS SUSPECTED.

Latter Was Found on the Floor of the Same Room Where the Corpse of the Wife Lay With His Throat Cut and In Unconscious State.

Evanston, Ill., Sept. 7.—Mrs. Fred Fish, the wife of a wealthy retired broker, was found murdered in her residence here at an early hour Saturday.
Her husband with his throat cut, was found unconscious on the floor of the bedroom in which the body of Mrs.
Fish was lying. The opinion of the police is that Fish took his wife's life and then attempted to commit suicide.
He was hurriedly taken to a hospital still unconscious.

It is alleged that Mr. and Mrs. Fish had a violent quarrel. A load from a shotgun had been discharged into the woman's head and she was afterwards hacked in a horrible manner with a butcher cleaver. Fish had been in poor health for some time and suffered from periodical attacks of dispondency.

FOUR MEN ARRESTED.

Thought to Have Been Implicated in Series of Robberies.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Four men, thought to be implicated in a series of robberies of dining cars committed while wearing women's clothing, were arrested in a raid on an apartment building at Twenty-third and Washburn avenue. The men were taken with hundreds of dollars' worth of plunder, said to have been stolen from the dining cars of the Illinois Central railroad and expensive dresses that are supposed to have been worn on the expeditions.

L. J. St. Cloud is named as the alleged ringleader of the expedition for four years. He was a cook on the "Diamond special" of the Illinois Central. He was discharged last March.
His companions—August Klingner, Edward Mortimer and Louis Thomas St. Cloud—rented a flat in the apartment building some time ago. The police believe that they can connect the men with numerous robberies that are supposed to have been committed by women.

ADJUDGED NOT GUILTY.

Farmer Acquitted on Charge of Working on the Sabbath.

Sherman, Tex., Sept. 7.—Carl Dignawitz, a well known German farmer residing east of Denison, was put on trial in the county court charged with violating the law prohibiting people from working on Sunday. It was shown that Mr. Dignawitz had plowed corn one day last summer, doing the work on Sunday. Mr. Dignawitz, who went on the stand, did not deny that he plowed the corn, as charged, but stated that he did it in order to have his crop, which was a crop of Mexican June corn, and the weather conditions had been and were at the time the work was done, was such that made it imperative that the work be done on that day. He was promptly declared not guilty. The case attracted a great deal of attention.

SUFFERING FROM CHILLS.

Caid Sir Hary McLean Not Being Properly Treated.

Tangier, Sept. 7.—Some of the details contained in recent letters received here from Caid Sir Harry Mac-Lean, who was captured early in July by the bandit, Raisuli, and has since been held a prisoner, have been divulged, and it is seen that Raisuli has not been treating his captive well. Sir Harry complains that he is suffering from chills, as a result of sleeping on the floor, with only a carpet for a covering. Raisuli refused to supply him with a mattress, but he adds: "The chief is very kind in sending me milk, as I am afraid to eat anything." Sir Harry says he is in a miserable room, the roof of which on one side is completely lacking. He is guarded by four men.

REVIEWED CLASS.

President Roosevelt Favors Women Riding Astride Horseback.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 7.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt visited the riding academy near here Saturday, where the president reviewed the work of the class. Athis and Quentin Roosevelt, his sons, took part in the review. The girls in the class rode astride, and the president in the course of the review, it is stated, expressed himself as in favor of that method of riding for women.

SON SLAYS SIRE.

Before Killing His Father Boy Tries to Murder Sister.

Gadsden, Ala., Sept. 7.—Frank Lee, demented, but thought harmless, suddenly became violent at Marling, a village near here. He attacked his sister and threw her into the road. He then entered the house and beat his aged father to death with a club. It required five men to overpower the boy.

First Football Accident.

Chicopee, Mass., Sept. 7.—The first football accident of season is recorded here. Within a minute after the beginning of the first football practice the collar bone of Broderick Craggs, eighteen years old, of the Chicopee high school eleven, was broken in a mass play.

FOUGHT WITH REVOLVERS

One Participant Wounded and Bystander Fatally Shot.

Bowie, Tex., Sept. 7.—As the immediate result of a street duel with revolvers here Walker Hargrove of Fort Worth is seriously wounded and W. A.
Stoner, a totally uninterested party, is in a precarious condition from the wound caused by a stray bullet fired by one of the combatants. Porter Brodie of Bowie was arrested in connection with the affray, as was also Hargrove, both giving bond.

The two men met on the street and, according to those who claim to have seen the difficulty, began to fight with clubbed pistols. After an exchange of blows they backed away and emptied their revolvers at each other, the rapid succession of shots bringing crowds.

Hargrove, shot through the fleshy part of the left arm, and with a wound on the left side of the head from a glancing bullet, which is thought to have fractured his skull, is said to have attempted to enter a store, when his assailant followed him, striking him repeated blows on the back of the head with his revolver.

The wounds inflicted by the clubbed weapon, the doctors state, are the most serious of his injuries, it being thought his skull was broken by the blows.

Brodie was not hurt in the melee, but W. A. Stoner, a young man who was standing a short distance away, was struck by a ball and fell to the sidewalk. It is not known which weapon fired the bullet. The doctors say he has but little chance for recovery.

Hargrove, despite his wounds, returned to Fort Worth.

MURDER, NOT MARRIAGE.

Young Man Killed on His Way After Future Wife.

Nacogdoches, Tex., Sept. 7.—Fifteen miles from here O. G. Owens, a well known young farmer, who was enroute to this place to be married to Miss Maggie Wilkerson, was overtaken by some miscreant and murdered.

His corpse was found in the woods about 200 yards from the roadway with the skull crushed. The marriage license, soaked with blood, was found in a pocket. It is supposed robbery was the motive.

After being shot in the head Owens' body had been dragged with a rope to where it was found.

Miss Wilkerson is prostrated with grief.

WILD BOAR HUNT.

This Has Been Planned For the President's Enjoyment.

Houston, Sept. 7.—Reports reached here from San Antonio that a wild boar hunt with javelins for weapons instead of rifles, is being planned for President Roosevelt's participation. An experimental hunt with javelins will shortly be made in the district south of San Antonio. Several of President Roosevelt's acquaintances expect to take part in this hunt, and they are authority for the statement that if the sport with the primitive weapons proves good, the president has promised to join in a hunt during his coming his southern and western tour.

LAMANA RETURNS.

Had Been to St. Louis and Chicago in Search of Fugitives.

New Orleans, Sept. 7.—Peter Lamana arrived in New Orleans Friday night on board the southbound Illinois Central train from Chicago, and there was joy in the heart of his household.
Lamana stated that he had been to St. Louis and Chicago in search of the fugitives who are implicated in the kidnaping and murder of his son, who have not yet been apprehended. He received information that the fugitives had been recognized in St. Louis and Chicago, but he could find no trace of them, and his trip was fruitless.

The Black Hand murder in St. James parish has stirred the people in that section, and the authorities are rounding up the suspicious Italians.

Waterloo, Ia., Sept. 7.—Twelve per-the wreck of an express train on the Rock Island railroad at Norris, Ia. The train, which was northbound, jumped the track while going at full speed, and collided with a freight train standing on the siding. The dead:

The northbound express was ten minutes late at Norris siding, a small station three miles north of Cedar awaiting the express, which came at a terrific speed. Just as the engine of the train was about to pass the freight engine the trucks of the train jumped the track, and the engine crashed into the engine of the freight, wrecking both engines and telescoping the baggage and mail cars and demolished the smoker.

UNION SUED.

Postal Telegraph Company Takes Action Against the Organization.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—The Postal Telegraph company began a suit against the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America on the ground that they had refused to pay for the transmission of messages. According to officials of the telegraph company no answer was made when the bills for the telegrams were presented to the union. Upon inquiry they were told that the union declined to make payment unless the telegraph company would certify that their messages had reached their destination by sending "chasers" after every message. The company refused.

The messages in question were filed with the company since the strike began. The case was set for Sept. 11.

Warrants were sworn out for the arrest of Samuel L. Ulrich and R. N.
Nichols, striking members of the Commercial Telegraphers' union, on the charge of intimidation. George S. Davis, an operator in the employ of the Postal company, was the complainant.
